MEETING OF BOER SYMPATHIZ-ERS HELD IN QUEENS' HALL, LONDON.

London, June 20 .- Thousands of people began collecting outside Queens' hall two hours before the advertised time of the pro-Boer meeting held there during the evening. There was considerable disturbance and win lows were broken in during the attempts made by persons without tickets to gain admission. Some of these were

In spite of the vigilance of the promoters of the meeting many jingoes gained an entrance to the hall, which was filled from floor to ceiling. Much hooting, mingled with cheers, greeted the delegates upon their arrival and during the evening the delivery of speeches was attended with some difficulty from the same cause.

Mr. Henry Labouchere presided at the meeting, and besides J. W. Sauer (ex-commissioner of public works of Cape Colony) many prominent pro-Boers, including Mr. John Dillon, leader of the Nationalist party; Mr. David Lloyd-George (Welsh Nationalist), Mr. James Keir Hardie (Socialist), and Sir Wilfrid Lawson, were present. Held an Opposition Meeting.

During the meeting fully 10,000 jingoes gathered outside of the Queens hall in Regent street, blocked traffic and necessitated relays of policemen to keep a semblance of order in the crowd. Several men mounted the parapet of the Langham hotel and waving Union Jacks proposed resolutions against the pro-Boer agitation, which they declared to have been carried when the meeting in Queens' hall terminated.

In the hall the usual speeches were made and the usual resolutions were carried amid much commotion and excitement. The resolutions included an amendment in favor of the complete independence of the Boer republics, proposed by Baron Battersea, for the Radicals, which did not meet with the approval of the Labouchere party. The meeting ended with the singing of the "Maresillaise."

Several collisions occurred between the crowd outside the hall and the police and the latter had the greatest difficulty in handling the assemblage. No casualties were reported.

MURDERERS MAY ESCAPE.

Washington Temporarily Without a Capital Punishment Law.

Tacoma, Wash., June 20.-Fourteen convicted murderers are likely to escape punishment because the state legislature last week in special session muddled the statutes relating to capital punishment by repealing the defective Rand law on the day that it went into effect instead of two days before it became operative.

The Rand law repealed the former law on capital punishment and became effective on June 12. On the same day the legislature in special session repealed the law. It is now shown that the law will not become effective until Sept. 11, 90 days after its passage, and in the meantime there is no law under which to punish murderers awaiting sentence or any person who may commit murder between now and Sept. 11.

SALT CURE FOR TYPHOID

New Theory Developed by Dr. W. Byron Coakley.

EXPERIMENTS TRIED ON DOGS.

In Paper Read Before the National Medical Association the Chicagoan Tells of Success With Saline Injections - How Organic Trouble

Common salt as a cure for typhoid fever and other acute organic diseases was discussed by Dr. W. Byron Coakley of Chicago in a paper that aroused much interest at a recent session in St. Paul of the materia medica section of the American Medical association.

Dr. Coakley has evolved a new theory as the result of a series of experiments on dogs followed with practical applications on human patients, says the Chicago Record-Herald. He declares that in acute organic diseases the saline injection can be administered locally to the diseased organ with marked success. He has prepared an extensive paper on the subject, which he will read before the international medical congress at Paris.

In the short time allowed him the other day Dr. Coakley gave a brief account of some of his experiments and the conclusions at which he had arrived. In a large number of cases he revived dogs when life was just fluttering away, injecting a saline solution directly into the blood.

In one case he bled the animal until heart action had almost ceased, then injected a hot saline solution. No immediate effect was observed, but at the was then put in an ice bath for three still under 30 years of age. minutes, followed by a hot salt bath. Its pulse speedily ran up to 140 under the stimulation, then down again to 110, but the animal recovered.

Dr. Coakley did not describe his application of the saline solution to human patients, but declared that he has had uniform success with it and does not hesitate to use it. He described one remarkable experiment. By repeated trials he determined that the saline solution will absorb carbonic acid gas. Now, 10 per cent of the gas is deadly poison. He bled a dog one-third, then injected carbonic acid gas until the an-Imal was in a comatose condition, then revived it with the salt injection.

Having satisfied himself, he decided to kill the dog and forced the gas into its jugular with a 35 pound pressure until the animal was stiff and showed no signs of life. He then threw it aside, but a few minutes later observed motion. He picked it up and found the respiration normal, the pulse 80. He sewed the animal up, and in an hour it was walking about. It died some days

Dr. Coakley is adverse to discussing the subject at this time, preferring not end of five minutes the heart began to to present the full case until he reads beat stronger, and in 30 minutes the the entire paper before the internationpulse was 110 and respiration 40. Common salt as a cure for typhoid fever and other acute organic diseases was discussed by Dr. W. Byron Coak-Brainerd this fall is to be a big ley of Chicago in a paper that aroused much interest at a recent session in St. Paul of the materia medica section of the American Medical association.

He has prepared an delineator of Etheopian songs and will be different. In the short time allowed him the George Fish, of St. Cloud, is in the other day Dr. Coakley gave a brief accity and is making his initial trip for count of some of his experiments and Wardner, Bushnell & Glessner, the conclusions at which he had arrived. In a large number of cases he revived dogs when life was just fluttering away, injecting a saline solution directly into the blood.

In another case, after bleeding the brain, 30 in the left jugular and anwas then put in an ice bath for three minutes, followed by a hot salt bath. Its pulse speedily ran up to 140 under the stimulation, then down again to 110, but the animal recovered.

Further, Dr. Coakley recounted experiments on separate organs. Using a fine needle, the injection can be made without permanent injury except in the ary Gossip. Professor Matthews was case of the heart. He declared that he originally nominated by Matthew Arhad made the injection into over 100 lungs without injury. He fourd by actual experiments on living animals that a saline injection in the liver rapidly increases the secretion of bile and that a marked effect on the kidneys is produced by similar treatment.

In treating organic trouble, he said, the greatest possible local action is arst necessary, followed by the injection into the general circulation. There are various reasons advanced why the tinction should increase metabolic activity. It is either by virtue of saline solution itself, of the heated liquid application or the effort of the organ to throw off the foreign matter.

Dr. Coakley did not describe his application of the saline solution to human patients, but declared that he has had uniform success with it and does not hesitate to use it. He described one remarkable experiment. By repeated trials he determined that the saline solution will absorb carbonic acid gas. Now, 10 per cent of the gas is deadly poison. He bled a dog one-third, ther injected carbonic acid gas until the animal was in a comatose condition, then revived it with the salt injection. Having satisfied himself, he decided to kill the dog and forced the gas into its jugular with a 35 pound pressure until the animal was stiff and showed no signs of life. He then threw it aside, but a few minutes later observed motion. He picked it up and found the respiration normal, the pulse 80. He sewed the animal up, and in an hour it was walking about. It died some days

Monday night the couple arrived in this city and went to the Stratton hotel, where they registered as 'Frank Wray and wife, Motley." They got up rather early Tuesday morning and left the house before breakfast. Shortly after the Hoffman store was opened the couple appeared there and wanted to rent two bicycles, stating that they wanted to go in the country a short distance. The wheels were rented to them and heard from the twain.

They gave their names at the Hoffman store the same as they registered at the hotel. The man was about five feet and six inches tall and weighed about 150 pounds. THE CONVOCATION.

Interesting Sessions Being Held in the Zenith City this Week ... Delegates Elected.

About 30 clergymen and 20 laymen from over the northern part of the state are attending the sixth annual convention of the Episcopal church at Duluth this week.

At a business session yesterday afternoon, Rev. A. W. Ryan, pastor of St. Paul's church, St. Paul, was elected a delegate to the triennal convention which meets in San Francisco in October and Dr. J. E. Bowers of Duluth was elected as the lay delegate. Archbishop Appleby and Dr. A. E. Hensell, of Alexandria, were chosen as provisional delegates.

The following of interest was taken from the Duluth News-Tribune:

"Last evening an interesting missionary meeting was held at the church, when addresses were made by Bishop G. Mott Williams, of Marquette; Rev. R. J. Mooney, of Brainerd; and Rev. Frederick Smith, of White Earth. Bishop Williams made an earnest talk on missionary work and asserted that the success realized did not always depend on the money received from the east, but largely on the zeal and enthusiasm of those in charge.

Rev. Mr. Mooney, one of the most energetic and enthusiastic clergymen in the district, made a forceful address on the need of the cultiva- fore in Brainerd. tion of the missionary spirit.

THE ARREST OF MAYOR PARKER.

PREFERRED BY ALDERMAN

Action the Result of Strained Relations Between the Mayor and Several Members of the Council-Former Accuses One of the Latter of Bad Faith in Introducing a Resolution of Inquiry.

Duluth, June 20.-Superior is agitated over the arrest of the mayor, F. S. Parker, on a charge of criminal libel preferred by Alderman J. W. Barry, a member of the city council and a saloonkeeper. Mayor Parke: was arrested by the sheriff and immediately gave $500 bonds for his appearance in court when wanted. The mayor and several members of the city council, representing the opposing political factions, have been at variance for some time. About two weeks ago they succeeded in passing a resolution through the council requiring the mayor to give a list of all the gambling and disorderly houses in the city. Tuesday night he answered the resolution, refusing to comply with it on the ground that Alderman Barry, the introducer, had not presented it in good faith but was incensed because the mayor had closed a disreputable resort near his saloon. Mayor Parker charged Barry with deriving business from the house and said that he introduced the resolution the night after he had refused to allow it to reopen simply as a retaliatory measure.

APPEAL TO THE PRESIDENT.

Indians Ask Him to Aid in Stopping Opening of Reservations.

Washington, June 20 .- Former Congressman Springer, who is counsel for the Kiowa, Comanche and Apache Indians in their suit to enjoin the secretary of the interior from opening up to settlement the reservations in Oklahoma, has filed with the president a memorial praying that he exercise his discretion under the law and withhold the issuance of his proclamation for six months after the final allotments to the Indians are made and thus give congress an opportunity to repeal the present law. The memorial says that Lone Wolf, one of the chiefs of the Kiowas, is a Baptist minister and that others of the Indians are Christians and prays that the president will not send these men back to tell the members of their tribe that a Christian country would defraud them of their lands.

Mr. Springer says that if the lower court refuses an injunction the case will be carried to the supreme court of the United States.

GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP.

Scheme on Foot to Turn Over All the Railroads in the Country.

Denver, June 20 .- The Times says: A gigantic scheme is under way to transfer the railroads of the United States to the government. A Western financier who has returned from New York, where he investigated the ru mors afloat in financial circles. asserts that the report of pending government ownership is general.

He declares that within a few years the Rockefeller, Harriman, Vanderbilt. WANTS ISLANDS FORTIFIED.

United States Sends Another Note to Denmark.

London, June 20 .- The Copenhagen correspondent of The Daily Mail cables his paper saying that the United States has sent another note to Denmark in the matter of the sale of the Danish West Indies to the effect that if Denmark is not willing to sell the islands the United States must demand that Denmark fortify and garrison the Islands of St. Thomas and St. John, which would command the Nicaraguan canal. The situation is regarded seriously here, as Denmark cannot dream of undertaking the erection of fortifications and the maintenance of garrisons, which would cost several millions.

Does Not Intend to Resign.

New York, June 20 .- President Mellen of the Northern Pacific, who is in the city, denied that he contemplates resigning from the presidency of the company. Mr. Mellen said that unless conditions changed in a way that could not be foreseen he did not expect to resign from the presidency. He had received no intimation, he said, from the directors that his services were unsatisfactory, his resignation had not been asked for and he had no thought of resigning.

Rio de Janeiro, June 20.-Great indignation and excitement have been aroused here by the charging of an increased fare on the San Christavio street railroad. Some cars were burned by rioters Monday night and Tuesday further excitement was fomented by the disgruntled elements of the population. The police and cavalry charged at Ouvidor in the business district, killing 4 persons and wounding 20. Washington, June 20 .- Consul General Guenther at Frankfort, Germany, reports to the state department the existence in tropical Africa of an ideal food of the bean family which, the chemists say, is the only fruit found in a natural state that shows all the chemical properties of a perfect nutriment. Two pounds of these beans would supply the daily requirements of the human system.

Action of Treasury Officials on Russian Petroleum Was Obligatory.

Washington, June 20 .- Treasury officials protest against the assumption in some quarters that the department has taken up the question of the duty on petroleum imported from Russia and decided it adversely to that country, well knowing that little or no petroleum is brought from there into the United States. Since the Dingley tariff act went into operation the officlais say the department never has directly passed upon the question at issue. The act itself makes it obligatory upon the authorities to impose a corresponding duty on petroleum or its products imported from any foreign country which imposes a duty on the American article, but treasury of ficials say nothing was done as to importations from Russia until Jan. 28, 1901, when the board of general appraisers at New York held that petroleum produced in Russia and imported into England, there refined and thence imported into the United States was dutiable at a rate equal to the rate imposed by Russia on petroleum imported in that country from the United States, and, further, that the provisions of the Dingley tariff law apply to the country where the oil is produced and not to the country of exportation. This decision, it is contended at the treasury department, is the only one which could be made in view of the plain wording of

FOR FOSTER'S DEATH.

Two Negroes Lynched by a Mob at Benton, La.

Shreveport, La., June 20.-Frank, better known as "Prophet" Smith, and F. D. McLand, held at Benton for complicity in the murder of John Gray Foster, were taken out by a mob and strung up to a tree. They were left dangling side by side. The lynching occurred on the Arkansas road about one mile and a half from the jail. Both negroes made statements before death denying that they had anything to do with the killing. Smith, who was the head of the "Church of God" movement in that section and was blamed as being responsible for the sentiment against the whites which led to the death of Foster, died praying. McLand was silent as he was strung up.

The mayor and several members of the city council, representing the opposing political factions, have been at variance for some time. About two weeks ago they succeeded in passing a resolution through the council requiring the mayor to give a list of all the gambling and disorderly houses in the city. Action of Treasury Officials on Russian Petroleum Was Obligatory.

Washington, June 20 .- Treasury officials protest against the assumption in some quarters that the department has taken up the question of the duty on petroleum imported from Russia and decided it adversely to that country, well knowing that little or no petroleum is brought from there into the United States. Since the Dingley tariff act went into operation the officials say the department never has directly passed upon the question at issue. The act itself makes it obligatory upon the authorities to impose a corresponding duty on petroleum or its products imported from any foreign country which imposes a duty on the American article, but treasury officials say nothing was done as to importations from Russia until Jan. 28, 1901, when the board of general appraisers at New York held that petroleum produced in Russia and imported into England, there refined and thence imported into the United States was dutiable at a rate equal to the rate imposed by Russia on petroleum imported in that country from the United States, and, further, that the provisions of the Dingley tariff law apply to the country where the oil is produced and not to the country of exportation. This decision, it is contended at the treasury department, is the only one which could be made in view of the plain wording of the law.

Two Negroes Lynched by a Mob at Benton, La.

FOR FOSTER'S DEATH.

Shreveport, La., June 20.-Frank, better known as "Prophet" Smith, and F. D. McLand, held at Benton for complicity in the murder of John Gray Foster, were taken out by a mob and strung up to a tree. They were left dangling side by side. The lynching occurred on the Arkansas road about one mile and a half from the jail. Both negroes made statements before death denying that they had anything to do with the killing. Smith, who was the head of the "Church of God" movement in that section and was blamed as being responsible for the sentiment against the whites which led to the death of Foster, died praying. McLand was silent as he was strung up.

There were about 200 armed men in the mob and they overpowered the sheriff and jailer, taking the keys

Action of Treasury Officials on Russian Petroleum Was Obligatory.

Washington, June 20 .- Treasury officials protest against the assumption in some quarters that the department has taken up the question of the duty on petroleum imported from Russia and decided it adversely to that country, well knowing that little or no petroleum is brought from there into the United States. Since the Dingley tariff act went into operation the officials say the department never has directly passed upon the question at issue. The act itself makes it obligatory upon the authorities to impose a corresponding duty on petroleum or its products imported from any foreign country which imposes a duty on the American article, but treasury officials say nothing was done as to importations from Russia until Jan. 28, 1901, when the board of general appraisers at New York held that petroleum produced in Russia and imported into England, there refined and thence imported into the United States was dutiable at a rate equal to the rate imposed by Russia on petroleum imported in that country from the United States, and, further, that the provisions of the Dingley tariff law apply to the country where the oil is produced and not to the country of exportation. This decision, it is contended at the treasury department, is the only one which could be made in view of the plain wording of

FOR FOSTER'S DEATH.

Two Negroes Lynched by a Mob at Benton, La.

Shreveport, La., June 20 .- Frank, better known as "Prophet" Smith, and F. D. McLand, held at Benton for complicity in the murder of John Gray Foster, were taken out by a mob and strung up to a tree. They were left dangling side by side. The lynching occurred on the Arkansas road about one mile and a half from the jail. Both negroes made statements before death denying that they had anything to do with the killing. Smith, who was the head of the "Church of God" movement in that section and was blamed as being responsible for the sentiment against the whites which led to the death of Foster, died praying. McLand was silent as he was strung up.

There were about 200 armed men in the mob and they overpowered the been prorogued until the second Tues- sheriff and jailer, taking the keys

Niles, Mich., June 20 .- A copious flow of crude petroleum was discovered on the farm of W. W. Stevens, about six miles northwest of this city, during the siking of an artesian well. Dudley Shirley, a South Bend, Ind., prospector, at once secured leases of 600 acres of land, including the Stevens farm, and will begin drilling for oil. The flow of the crude oil from the Stevens well is steady and indications point to an inexhaustible supply. The discovery of the oil has excited the farmers in the vicinity and property values are increasing.
